Last Week: - Cofer Brothers and Life in Tucker, Georgia “Through the Years”

Charlie Patterson introduces our speaker, Jim Wilson

Jim Wilson gives the Tucker Club an overview of the Cofer Brothers Building Supply Company. Kelly and Reid Cofer started the company in 1919. The store carried a variety of merchandise, and was then a gathering place for the locals. The slogan then was “Trade elsewhere and we both lose.” At one time there were as many as seven stores. Times changed, and stores closed. Around 1975, the company came to focus mainly on building supplies. (www.coferbrothers.com/history.html). While Cofer Brothers still serves the Tucker community and environs, much of their business now comes from the thriving movie set construction industry in Georgia. Additionally, Cofer Bros. is known for their extensive collection of vintage cars housed in a museum in Tucker, GA.
